

We may be in 'lockdown' mode in Ansty because of the coronavirus crisis but the pleasant spring weather we have been blessed with recently has allowed some of us to get out in the garden to do those jobs we haven't 'got round to'. Afte such a wet and mild winter the warm conditions of early April have allowed the trees and the flowers to burst forth into bud and early flowering producing a kaleidoscope of wonderful colours...

~

Photographed by Anne Martin, Ansty. 06-04-2020

Ansty Pond and its fine backdrop of trees. 06-04-2020

Early spring in an Ansty garden!

06-04-2020

'The path to peace is through mental discipline'

'Meditate and be awakened'

06-04-2020