

In case you didn't know it COP stands for Conference of the Parties – the countries that signed the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change. The meeting in Glasgow in 2021 will be the 26th meeting – hence COP26. What do you think? Is it all hot air by politicians? Do you think we are undergoing climate change? What are you prepared to do about it? Can we all do something collectively? Or is it just a nightmare unfolding that we cannot do anything about?

Will this meeting be any better than the last 26? Try these articles from the BBC:

COP26: What is the Glasgow climate conference and why is it important?

What is climate change? A really simple guide